SUMMARY

It should come as no surprise that a simple premise such as happiness and loneliness would generate such wildly varied ideas and individual responses. We all have intimate knowledge of the two and what they mean in our lives. What does it take to be happy? What is it that makes you feel lonely? Five people with very different backgrounds and points of view talk about these simple yet powerful facets of our life. A very basic subject that has within it infinite points of view. No one person comes close to describing a similar experience to another yet, strangely it seems as one voice
